

Professional Development Conference the Mississippi Leadership Academy

Conference will focus on strategies for improving literacy instruction and parent engagement in elementary schools particularly for boys of color.

Featured Speakers include:

Dr. Baruti Kafele (author of Closing the Attitude Gap: How to Fire Up Your Students to Strive for Success)
& Gholdy Muhammad (Assistant Professor at Georgia State University- expert on literacy)

Breakfast & Lunch provided

Cost for non MLA members $100.00
(current MLA participants attend for free)

June 1st & June 2, 2016
9:00 a.m. - 3:00 p.m.

MS e-Center @ Jackson
State University |
1230 Raymond Rd |
Jackson, MS 39204 |

Hosted by Coalition of Schools Educating Boys of Color (COSEBOC), Mississippi Leadership Academy, Mississippi Action Network for Uplifting Promise (Man Up) & W. K. Kellogg Foundation.

